Listing and Promotion Requirements

To sell Collectibles on TikTok Shop, you must:

- Describe item condition accurately (wear, defects, restorations).
- Provide proof of authenticity (COA, LOA, label, or graded report).
- Upload clear photos showing signatures, labels, or holograms.
- Choose accurate product condition ("New," "Like New," "Good," etc).

Review our Collectibles Policy and Gambling Policy for more information.

LIVES: What to Do When Offering Collectibles

- Be transparent. Clearly state condition and show any COA, LOA, hologram, or graded label during LIVE for each promoted product.
- Use official TikTok Shop product links or LIVE product sets so viewers can buy directly.
- Match your promotions. Prices, bundles, or discounts mentioned in LIVE must match the product detail page.
- Keep the focus on the product. Highlight its background, details, and value, not speculation or hype.
- Encourage interaction. Ask for likes, shares, and follows to boost reach and discoverability.

LIVES: What to Avoid When Offering Collectibles

- Don't promote unrelated products during your LIVE.
- Don't use filters, effects, or lighting that distort how items look.
- Don't offer purchase-based prizes, such as "Top spender wins a rare figure" or "First buyer gets a free autograph."
- Don't phrase your content to suggest gambling or luck, such as "Guess the card to win" or "Place your bets!"
- Don't run any chance-based games where viewers pay to win collectibles, such as raffles, sweepstakes, or lotteries.
- Don't use vague, exaggerated, or misleading descriptions.

Non-compliance is subject to platform enforcement.
